After breakfast, start your Seoul itinerary by exploring one you'll find one of Korea's most revered traditional villages – Bukchon Hanok Village. This 600-year old village dates back to the Joseon Dynasty and lies on top of a hill between three of the city's most important landmarks – Gyeongbok Palace, Changdeok Palace, and Jongmyo Royal Shrine. Besides the excellent views, you can enjoy over the city, Bukchon is also the perfect place for a relaxing walkabout and, more importantly, a great way to get a closer look at traditional Korean houses, called hanok. When visiting here, though, please remember to be respectful at all times. After lunch, visit Gyeongbokgung Palace – the main royal palace of the Joseon dynasty. Later visit Mt. Namsan – Seoul's most iconic backdrop and a popular spot for hikers and tourists alike. At 262 meters high, this mountain peak is undoubtedly one of the best places to get a bird's-eye view of the cityscape. The park covers an extensive area and is home to many attractions such as Baekbeom Square, the Namsan Cable Car, and Namsan Seoul Tower, to name just a few. Overnight stay at hotel in Seoul.
